The groom is one of our best known and most popular young men, while the charming bride is a recent arrival from Denver, Colorado.

Needless to state the whole town turned out to congratulate the happy couple and to wish them all kinds of luck on life's journey.

NEW FIRE THREAT

Last reports from the fire lines just as this paper went to press are to the effect that a new blaze just started on the Charles Ciancio ranch, four miles north of Calpella. It was feared late Thursday afternoon that the fire burning around Leonard lake section and the one burning on the Greenfield ranch would join, taking several buildings in their path. About 15 men are working to keep the fires apart.

VAUDEVILLE COMING

Plans have been completed by the management of the State theatre for the appearance of six acts of high class vaudeville, in conjunction with an excellent picture, next Friday night. The acts recently played the RKO circuit, which included in its chain of playhouses the Golden Gate theatre in San Francisco. More details of this unique program will be given in next week's paper.

MAN SWALLOWS TACKS

While working at the home of Miss C. Phelps, on the corner of Pine and Scott streets Tuesday morning, George Stubblefield, local painter and paper hanger, swallowed a small handful of tacks, while he was tacking some cloth on the ceiling of a room. Some of them lodged in his throat and others in his stomach. He was treated by Dr. Cleland.

CAMPAIGNING FOR TUBBS

Al Malpas, former Ukiah resident, was here this week campaigning for Tallant Tubbs, candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator.

Malpas has a host of friends in Ukiah and his efforts will doubtless have an important bearing on the local vote next Tuesday.

Mrs. Ralph Byrnes was able to leave the hospital yesterday and was moved to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Van Dyke.

Congressman Lea in Town for Short Visit

Congressman Clarence F. Lea was in Ukiah the early part of the week for a short time. He renewed acquaintance with many of his friends and was greeted warmly by all.

Mr. Lea is one of the outstanding members of the lower house at Washington and his long term of service has given him a seniority standing which inures greatly to the advantage of his district. He stands well with both the Democratic and Republican sides and enjoys the confidence and esteem of both.

While he has considerable opposition this year he is stronger than ever and will in all probability secure the highest vote that has ever been given him.

Truck Drivers Hurt in Three-Car Mixup

Ernest Elliott in Hospital and Roy Carter Receives Cuts

Trucks belonging to Roy Carter, of Coyote valley, and Ernest Elliott, of Redwood valley, were involved in a collision Sunday evening on the east side road in Redwood valley, one mile north of Calpella.

Elliott was driving his truck a short distance behind a light car driven by Mrs. L. A. Ellmore, of Clay street, Ukiah. Both were traveling north. The truck started to pass the Ellmore car but swung back when Elliott saw the lights of an approaching vehicle. In doing so he struck the left rear fender of the Ellmore car, sending it into the ditch. His own turned over. The other truck, heavily loaded with timber and driven by Carter, crashed into the overturned truck, striking it squarely amidships.

Elliott was brought to Ukiah by E. R. Weismueller, of Redwood valley, and taken to the General hospital, where Dr. Rea found that he had his elbow broken, his jaw bone broken in two places and several cuts. Carter was later brought to Ukiah for medical treatment by members of his family, it was reported. He suffered a severe gash on his face, which required several stiches to close. Mrs. Ellmore luckily escaped serious injury.

Elliott is still in the hospital under the care of Dr. Rea, who stated that it would be several days before he could be released.

Deputy Sheriffs Wayne Crawford and Earl Bishop made an investigation of the accident in the absence of Captain Ryder of the traffic office, who was in Willits.

Later, Ryder, accompanied by Officer John Rawles, made an investigation.

Red Men May Come to Ukiah for 1934 Meet

Jud McClelland returned the latter part of last week from the state convention of the Improved Order of Red Men, which was held at Santa Rosa. He represented the Ukiah tribe.

With a little preliminary organization work McClelland states he could have obtained the 1933 convention for Ukiah, but he was not aware of the possibility until too late. However, if Ukiah wants the convention in 1934 she may have it, as the delegates expressed themselves very favorably toward this city as a meeting place, McClelland said.

JACOB WURTENBERG DIES

Jacob D. Wurtenberg died in this city last Tuesday after a long illness with a heart affection.

He was a member of one of the community's oldest pioneer families, his parents settling here in the fifties, and had spent practically his entire life in Ukiah.

He was known to a multitude of friends who join in extending sympathy to the family.

Funeral services were held yesterday at the Cleland funeral home.

Mrs. Roy Faught, formerly Norma Barbee of this city, accompanied by her son, was a visitor at the W. B. Hagans home the latter part of last week. Mrs. Faught's father, the late J. F. Barbee, was a noted educator of the county and served several terms as county school superintendent.

Misses Florence Bull and Agnes Borgna, accompanied by Jerry Loucks and Carroll Weeks, were Sunday visitors at Richardson's park, in Humboldt county.

Miss Elizabeth Ryder will return tomorrow from Fort Bragg, where she spent over a week visiting Miss Ollie Bishop, who was her roommate at the University of California last spring.

The call for the meeting was joined in by all members and was for the purpose of considering any and all matters arising pertaining to the construction of the new bridge across Eel river near Dos Rios, Calif., and with reference to plans and specifications, contract, price, contractors, and method and character of construction.

A motion was made by Supervisor Perkins that the board proceed to build the said Dos Rios bridge as an emergency measure. Supervisor Rupe seconded the motion. Supervisor Ed Haehl thereupon asked for a revision of the road budget of the board of supervisors before the motion was voted upon. No revision being agreed upon, the roll was called for the passage of the foregoing motion, with the following results: Ayes: Supervisors Rupe, Perkins and Gordon. Noes: Supervisors Haehl and Ford. Thereupon the chairman declared the motion lost, it taking the unanimous consent of the board to proceed on said construction.

The board then adjourned to 10:00 a. m. August 16, 1932, and reconvened at 10:25 a. m. on said day with the following present: Ed Haehl, C. E. Gordon and E. M. Ford, members; H. M. Burke, clerk by M. This being the time fixed for the hearing and adoption of the county budget for the fiscal year 1932-33, Will Bromley, secretary of the 1932 grand jury, presented the recommendations, on the budget, by said grand jury.

Supervisors J. M. Rupe and Chas. R. Perkins appeared and took their places in the meeting.

Chas. M. Mannon of the Committee of Ten, selected by this board of supervisors to advise and assist it in preparing the 1932-33 county budget attended the meeting and gave the recommendations of said committee as each of the various budgets was considered.

The board proceeded, in the manner prescribed by law, to consider the various appropriations requested in the county budget and made changes and revisions therein.

The board fixed the maximum rate of mileage allowed by Mendocino county to its officers and employees for using automobiles in county business at 8c per mile for the sheriff and 6c per mile for all other officials, departments or service of the county where the same is not set by statute.

The board then adjourned the further hearing on the fixing of the budget to 10:30 a. m. August 17, 1932 and adjourned to meet in conference at 9:00 a. m. August 17, 1932.

The board reconvened in conference at 9:00 o'clock a. m. August 17, 1932 with all members, except Ed Haehl, present.

BRIDGE DISPUTE RAGES

The matter of the Dos Rios bridge has been an off-again, on-again proposition this week while the supervisors wrestled with the problem of awarding the contract. As it stood when the board adjourned Wednesday, the board had decided by a four-to-one vote to let the contract to the Mercer Fraser company of Eureka for not to exceed $50,000. The company refused to accept the contract unless it were awarded by a unanimous vote. The Healy Tibbietts company, of San Francisco then offered to do the work for cost plus 10 per cent.

The final action of the board was to award the contract to the Mercer Fraser company, Supervisor Haehl voting against it.

According to an opinion rendered by the attorney general yesterday a four-fifths vote is sufficient under the circumstances, so the Eureka firm may accept the contract after all.

Vets Have Good Time at Barbecue Sunday

FOR NEEDY CHILDREN

In order to help the needy children attending the local grammar school, by supplying them with milk and orange juice, the Ukiah 20-30 club has distributed milk bottles to several business places around town. Each bears a sign asking for donations to help the good work along. A donation from the club's general fund has already been made and with the assistance of the public many children who are under-nourished will be furnished milk. The cause is a worthy one and all good-hearted citizens are urged to contribute.

The men escaped injury but the two women suffered severe cuts and bruises. They were given medical treatment at Hopland.

Boonville Man May Lose His Eyesight

Anderson Special Tax Is Only 4c. Other Boonville News

BOONVILLE, Aug. 22.—R. J. Eten submitted to a second eye operation at St. Mary's hospital in San Francisco Wednesday of last week. The eye specialist in charge of his case is reported to have been well pleased with the operation but they will have to wait for two weeks before they can tell if it has been successful. Mr. Eten was told there was a chance of the operation improving his sight but also that it might result in the loss of sight entirely. His many friends here are hoping for the best.

Patrons of the Anderson district school will be glad to learn that they only have a four cent special tax this year instead of the falsely reported eleven cent tax that was rumored some time ago. The clerk of the board of trustees states that the expense of remodeling the school house to allow two rooms, a change made necessary by the joining of the Yorkville district with the Anderson for the coming year, will only amount to about $25, which is indeed a small sum when compared to the benefits pupils of both schools will receive. This district had a five cent special tax last year but would not have needed any this year if the delinquent taxes were in.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Dennison were hosts at a delightful dinner party Wednesday evening at the J. E. Singley home in Bell valley. Following dinner the evening was passed at cards. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rawles, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rawles, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ferrell, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacKintosh and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson.

Mrs. Noonie Boulon Is Dead at Vallejo

The host of friends in Mendocino county of Mrs. Noonie Boulon will be saddened to learn that she passed away at her home in Vallejo Wednesday.

She was about 75 years of age at the time of her demise and had been failing in health since she suffered a stroke of paralysis sometime ago.

She was the daughter of the late M. C. Briggs, one of the early settlers of Potter valley, and was related to the Potter family, the first white people to settle in that valley. She was a sister of Kit Briggs, of Hearst, the late Jennie Mathews, of Ukiah and Mrs. J. W. Elstun, of San Francisco.

She is also survived by Mrs. Mazie Vogleman, of Vallejo, a granddaughter, Mrs. Eva Cameron, a cousin, and Paul Mathews, a nephew, both of Ukiah.

Arcata Truck Driver Injured in Accident

W. T. Mitchell Taken to Willits Hospital Following Crash

W. T. Mitchell, resident of Arcata, is in the Howard memorial hospital suffering from three cracked ribs following an automobile accident Tuesday morning at the Forsythe creek bridge, above Calpella.

Mitchell, accompanied by H. Harris, of Willits, was enroute north from Ukiah to Piercy with a load of baled hay. He states that the truck slipped out of gear and stalled. He was traveling at 30 miles an hour and the sudden stopping of the machine broke the ropes holding the load, which moved forward and crushed the cab, injuring Mitchell, who was driving.

He was pulled out of the wreck by his companion and rushed to the hospital in considerable pain. The truck was later brought to Ukiah for repairs.

Mitchell was the defendant in a damage suit a few months ago, when Traffic Officer Dick White sued him for $11,000 following a collision near Panther springs last year.

BOOTLEG CHARGE

Charles Branchini, 30, alleged Geyserville bootlegger and rum runner, was lodged in the county jail Wednesday afternoon by Sheriff Dick Williams and Deputy Sheriff Earl Bishop, on a charge of possession of liquor.

He was arrested last Tuesday night in Fort Bragg and placed in jail until the following day. He appeared before Justice of the Peace Bill Ware, who fined him $300 or 150 days in the county jail. Forty-five gallons of wine was found in his car by the officers. The man has been wanted here by authorities for several months, having brought wine and whiskey into Ukiah, from time to time, according to the authorities.

Light refreshments were served during the evening and various games were indulged in.

An investigation is under way by the sheriff's office.

Constable Nelson McClure suffered a slight stroke of paralysis the early part of the week. He awoke in the morning to find his left side paralyzed. Later in the day the condition improved to such an extent that he was able to walk and to use his left arm and hand and he has been gradually improving ever since.

Attorney A. L. Wessels is suffering blood poisoning in a finger on his right hand. The infection set in after he had scratched it a few days ago while working at his home. The member was treated by Dr. Bennett and is improving slowly.

Spy Rock Man Hurt, Taken to Hospital

Another Artesian Well Struck. Other Notes from Willits

WILLITS, Aug. 23.—Nathaniel Robbins met with a peculiar accident while working with some pack animals a few days ago. He was employed by Harry Beard, near Spyrock, and in some unknown manner the tie pole became unfastened at one end and hit Robbins across the head and knocked him out. He was brought to the Howard memorial hospital for treatment and at this writing one side of his head is still paralyzed. The doctors think that this will soon pass away.

Another Accident

Last Saturday Louis Mego, while cutting wood, let the axe slip and it struck him in the side of the head and made a long ugly gash which just missed his eye. It was a double bit axe and had it struck Mego a half inch further in it would have pierced his brain and killed him. At it was it turned out to be a scalp and face wound.

Another Artesian Well

J. M. Hayes struck a small flow of artesian water on his ranch a few days ago. This ranch joins the cemetery hill on the west and is but a short distance from the other wells heretofore reported. Mr. Hayes bored on top of a hill about 70 feet above the level of most of his ranch and had to go through a thicker stratum of the blue clay. The water overflows and is estimated to be enough to fill a half inch pipe. It now looks very much as if most of this valley will shortly be under irrigation from the water from artesian wells.

Sells Calves

Lou James has just sold 70 of this year's calves and the price received ranged from four to five cents, according to weight and classification. While this is not a very large price still it is better than it was several months ago.

The lodge room is one of the finest and largest in Mendocino county and is also the best lighted, as there are numerous windows on both sides of it.

Schools Will Open

Both the high and grammar schools will begin the new term next Monday. Most of the high school teachers have been away during the summer vacation and a few have already returned. Prof. and Mrs. Frye have returned from an extended visit in their old home in Montana. On account of the consolidation of grammar school districts it has been deemed necessary to have a junior high school and the two highest grades of the grammar school will be moved to the high school building.

Fannie Marvin, Eugene Corbett and George Teale have enrolled at the San Francisco teacher's college. Jack Livingston is taking a course in pharmacy at the U. C. and Harvey Sawyers has resumed his studies at the college of agriculture at Berkeley.

Hospital Notes

Jesse Bakker, the man who had several inches of his arm shot away two weeks ago, is getting along better than could be expected and from now on there will be but little danger of infection. His youth and splendid health are his two greatest assets and the big wound has already started to heal.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Potter on the 19th and a son to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mego on the 23.

Mrs. Peter Persico underwent a major operation Tuesday morning.

Luke Gates, of Covelo, who has a badly fractured hip, is reported as responding splendidly and he will soon be discharged.

Rebekah Funeral

The funeral services of the late Mary Davidson had to be postponed one day on account of her daughter, Martha, being unable to arrive from her home in southern California in time. PRESTON

(Editorial in The Chico Enterprise)

Judge H. L. Preston has had 12 years' experience as a judge. He has been endorsed for the appellate bench by 17 judges of superior courts, by 21 of the 35 district attorneys in the third appellate district and by 20 of the 23 practicing attorneys of Butte county. He is highly qualified for this important position by temperament and ability. He rendered several years' valuable service as justice pro tem on the appellate courts. He was appointed as presiding justice in May, 1931. He resigned as judge of Mendocino county to accept the appointment. His defeat would be a distinct loss to the courts, and would be unfair to him.

2 Supervisors Relate Facts

The people of Mendocino county are entitled to the facts concerning the votes which we, as members of the Board of Supervisors, cast during the week's session at budget making which has just resulted in the current tax rate being set at $2.75.

We were convinced at the outset that, during the coming year, nothing should be done on the roads, except to see bridges were safe and the roads passable—$160,000 in the budget for road purposes would have insured passable roads and left $50,000 for an emergency. Had the road budget been limited to this amount, the tax rate would not have exceeded $2.50.

We could not get any other member of the Board to agree to this limitation on road funds and, when the Dos Rios bridge collapsed, we were assailed with the argument it would then be necessary to levy $250,000 for road purposes.

Just before the budget setting, a meeting of the board was held and an attempt was made to stampede us into voting the Dos Rios bridge an emergency and making an emergency appropriation for its construction. Realizing such a move on our part would take away the only leverage we had on the board, we refused to take any action on the bridge until the budget was adopted and the tax rate fixed. We fully realized at all times the Dos Rios bridge had to be constructed and built as an emergency measure, but our refusal to act precipitately brought the unjust accusation against us we did not intend the bridge to be built before next spring.

When the budget meeting opened, we took and consistently maintained the position all county expenditures over which the supervisors have control must be held to the lowest possible amount. The record of the meeting will show we voted for every recommended reduction in the budget. We moved that total road and bridge expenditures be held down to $160,000 and the motion was lost by three votes against our two. By the same vote $45,000 was budgeted in the County General Fund for the Dos Rios bridge and the road budgets were fixed at $197,000 and more and we were told that now we would be responsible for fixing a tax rate of over $3.25. After sleeping on this, the majority seemed to realize it was their three votes that had made such a rate even possible and on Friday morning they hastily rescinded their action and then by a vote of three to two budgeted $44,000 for the bridge by making the following deductions from the various road districts of the county: From District One, $10,000; from District Two, $10,000; from District Three, $10,000; from District Four, $10,000, and from District Five, $4000. District Four had already budgeted for road purposes $64,000 in such a way that nearly half the funds raised by taxation in Mendocino county this year for road purposes would be apportioned to that district. When the motion to take funds from the various districts for the bridge was made, we immediately stated we would be for it, provided all construction projects were cut out of the budget and particularly if District Four would eliminate $15,000 from its budget. This proposal was ignored and we, consequently, voted against the proposal, which was carried by the usual three to two vote.

When a motion was finally made to adopt the budget which had been fixed by majority vote, we renewed the protest we had been making against excessive taxation, pointed out that the budget for roads was higher than necessary, even in the face of the emergency, and finally voted against the budget because it was excessive. The budget was adopted by majority vote.

Having thus fought in vain for a week, there remained the question of the bridge, which everyone admits must be built immediately. Supervisor Haehl then introduced the resolution declaring the bridge situation an emergency and authorizing its immediate construction and that resolution was passed by unanimous vote.

Our opponents made so many accusations to us we do not know what impression the public may have gained.

We publish this statement in an attempt to make it clear that what we attempted to get was a limitation of the road budget to $160,000, which would have been sufficient to keep our county roads passable and our bridges safe, and build the Dos Rios bridge.

Had our suggestions been followed, the tax rate would have been approximately $2.50 instead of $2.75.

The citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon will include the following from the Bible: "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his son, Who . . . . . upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; Unto the Son he saith . . . . . Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath annointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows" (Hebr. 1:1-3; 8-9).

The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus' spiritual origin and his demonstration of divine Principle richly endowed him and entitled him to sonship in Science. He was the son of a virgin. The term Christ Jesus, or Jesus the Christ (to give the full and proper translation of the Greek), may be rendered "Jesus the anointed,' Jesus the God-crowned or the divinely royal man, as it is said of him in the first chapter of Hebrews:—

With the oil of gladness above

REDWOOD VALLEY

volunteer workers were able to backfire and thus confine the fire to a small area, thereby saving 100 cords of wood belonging to C. M. Goudge and most of F. DeCarli's grass.

However, 19 cords of wood belonging to Walter Winsby and three cords to C. M. Goudge burned.

Only a smal larea was burned over on the Poma ranch.

The Rocky creerk bridge was threatened. The fire had crept right to the bridge and only the timely arrival of James B. Williams saved it.

Another severe fire sprang up on Black Hill at the southeastern portion of Reeves canyon Monday. A crew of some 40 men under the direction of Fire Warden Roach and the forest rangers are fighting the blaze, which is burning on the Ridgewood ranch, Dutton and J. Lee Smith ranges. The valley has been showered with cinders and ashes and covered with a heavy pall of smoke. Another blaze is reported farther up Reeves canyon and still another on the east side hills on the Potter side.

Under the direction of Wm. Pickle, Supervisor E. M. Ford's road crew put a carload of oil onto two miles of road last week. A fleet of trucks scattered gravel along the stretch and scores of men shoveled the gravel onto the oil. This type of road has been tried out on the coast and is holding up very well.

The road from the end of the pavement near the Finnish colony to Clifford Smith's was covered, also the road from the Redwood store to the depot and from Hamburgher's place to the highway.

This week the bridge at the head of the valley is being almost rebuilt. Some of the timbers were badly decayed and the bridge was pronounced dangerous.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Howland and family returned Friday evening from a 10-day vacation auto tour. They went over via Redding and Alturas, across southeastern Oregon and Idaho to the celebrated Yellowstone Park. The return trip was made through Utah and Nevada.

In eastern Oregon they encountered a stretch of road of 140 miles from Lakeview to Burns without a single service station or any water—merely a stretch of alkali waste.

A bad auto accident occurred just south of the H. Buchholz place at 7:30 Saturday night. A Chevrolet truck driven by Ernest Elliott and belonging to Elliott & Frost, in attempting to pass a touring car collided with another Chevrolet truck driven by Ray Garfield and belonging to Henry Carter of Coyote valley. Elliott was northbound and Garfield south-bound, loaded with wood. The front wheels of the trucks locked with terrific impact. Elliott was badly injured. His jaw was broken in three places, his left arm broken and his face badly cut. He was rendered unconscious and did not come to until the following day. Roy Rutler and Arvo Ulivila arrived on the scene soon after the accident and took the injured man to the General hospital. At first it was feared he might lose one eye. He is still in the hospital and is getting along as well as could be expected. At present he has no recollection of the accident.

Ray Garfield suffered a broken nose and his face was cut severely.

The cars were towed to Stansell's garage, where the Carter truck is being repaired. The other will not be repaired.

Another auto accident occurred Tuesday near the water trough at the entrance to the Oscar Huber road. A Mr. Mitchell with a truck load of alfalfa hay lost control of his truck and ran into the bank, and narrowly averted being crushed to death in the cab.

The Redwood valley baseball team is now at the top of the heap in the twilight league, having won every game in the second half of the season so far. They play their last game on the regular schedule Friday night, when they meet the American Legion, a fast coming team.

Some shifts have recently been made in the lineup on account of George Mikkila, regular catcher, leaving to enter San Mateo junior college. Veiko Soinilla was shifted from right short to catcher and Willie Wainio from third base to right short, Fred Bom from right field to third base, and Kenneth Williams took Fred Bom's place in right field.

In the Sunday school contest the Reds mustered 37 last Sunday to 22 for the Blues. This great spurt found the Reds just two behind the Blues, who have led from the start of the contest.

The Rev. Elbert Holland will fill his regular monthly appointment Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock. All are invited to come.

A. J. Frye has purchased a Chevrolet coupe.

Mrs. Minnie O'Connor, of San Francisco, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Ford.

George Branson is gradually getting weaker and weaker. It is over five months since he was released from the hospital and he has been practically bedfast ever since.

Mrs. H. Williamson killed a 45-inch rattlesnake last week. The reptile was as thick as a man's wrist. It only had seven rattles, as they had been broken off. This is the third snake the Williamsons have killed on their place this year.

Sam and A. B. Newell have recently enjoyed a week's visit from a sister, Mrs. John Masters, of Gererden, Mo.

Mrs. E. R. Weissmuller is visiting relatives in Oakland.

Pear picking is in full swing. The crop is very light here. Perhaps it is just as well for so far consigned pears are mostly bringing red ink. Cash prices are now being offered. $15 for No. 1's, $9 for No. 2's and $3.50 for culls.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matthews motored to San Francisco recently. Mrs. Matthews' school reopened on August 15 and Mr. Matthews is remaining for a short time in the bay city.

John Gherlone was a visitor to San Francisco last week.

Norman Woolley was called back to his old job with the Standard Oil at Richmond last week, after a two-year layoff. Mrs. Woolley and the children went down Tuesday.

John Wilson is busy picking a fine crop of Imperial prunes.

Marvina Ford has returned home after spending the summer vacation in Sonoma county with friends and relatives and also working in the fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barker and children, Marjorie and Elmer, were recent visitors to the Roy Ford home. Joe Ford, of San Francisco, was also a visitor at the Ford home.

IN BEHALF OF W. D. L. HELD

To the Voters of Mendocino County:

In the primary election next Tuesday, Mr. W. D. L. Held is a candidate for Superior Judge, and as the sister of former Tax Collector Lee Cunningham, I have an interest in the candidacy of Mr. Held.

When my brother, Lee Cunningham, resigned as Tax Collector, it was because of an alleged shortage in his accounts. Following his resignation, an attempt was made to prosecute him criminally, but this failed. In these criminal proceedings, my brother was defended without any compensation, by his boyhood friend, W. D. L. Held. Mr. Held has always insisted that my brother was not short in his accounts, and that his resignation was forced upon him . I feel satisfied that if Mr. Held is elected, his friendship for my brother will prompt him to cause such an investigation of the county records to be made, that Lee Cunningham's good name will be vindicated. I am therefore very anxious that Mr. Held be elected, and I ask those who can consistently do so, to support Mr. Held's candidacy.

STATE THEATRE

"Beyond the Rockies"

The play "Beyond the Rockies," which comes to the State theatre tomrorow night, featuring Tom Keene, famous Western actor, was photographed in California's Sierras at an altitude of 8,000 feet, many miles from civilization, the authentic atmosphere of the old west. The picture, therefore, abounds in beautiful scenery, and carries a fast moving drama of the wild and wooley West.

The film presents the young Western star in a series of hair raising and dramatic stunts in which he escapes death only by his quick thinking and fearless nerve. He takes the part of a detective of the cattlemen's association, who is out to uncover the activities of a gang of cattle rustlers, headed by a pretty girl ranch owner.

Through a clever plot he catches the gang and not only wins the commendation of the association, but also the beautiful daughter of a cattle baron.

The picture is directed by Fred Allen, who has specialized in this type of film during his long experience in the directing field.

"Merrily We Go to Hell"

Here is a story that you will enjoy. It features Sylvia Sidney and Frederic March, a young couple of unusual talents and ability.

Frederic March, as a struggling scenarist, finally succeeds in wnining the love of a beautiful debutante at a social gathering. Marriage follows. It later develops that the young man is a slave to drink and he brings unhappiness and sorrow to his young wife. He finally writes a play which is produced on Broadway. The success goes to his head. He meets an old flame, who has a leading part in the play. She feeds him a lot of cheap and calculating flattery and throws in a few drinks for good measure and he starts a big drunk. His wife pleads in vain with him to mend his ways. She then pits her wits against the other woman to win back her husband. She must figure it out somehow. You will be thrilled to see how she does it. Go to the State theatre on Sunday or Monday and finish the story.

"Street of Women"

The play, "Street of Women," which comes to the State theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, is based on a love affair of an unusual kind between a married man, Larry, who is a power in the business world, and Natalie, a beautiful young woman, who has been his inspiration in business. Doris, his daughter, and Clark, her brother, are also in love.

Doris is brokenhearted when she learns her father is in love with the sister of her fiance. She goes to Natalie and asks her to give her father up, which Natalie agrees to do. Natalie tells Larry her decision.

Clark overhears the conversation and hastily leaves for South America on a boat.

The clever way the author settles the mixed up mess to the happiness of the two couples is thrilling and entertaining, to say the least.

Kay Francis is at her best, wearing some of her gorgeous costumes, which she lately purchased in Paris. Roland Young, as Larry, plays a most convincing part.

"The Stowaway"

Featured with "Street of Women" on Tuesday and Wednesday, the play "The Stowaway" will be shown, depicting the lives of waterfront characters, and thrilling episodes taking place on a freighter plying between Los Angeles and San Francisco. The story opens in a taxi-dance hall where Fay Wray is having a difficult time in uncouth surroundings. Running away she hides in the hold of a freighter. She is discovered by the second mate, Waycoff, who tries to hide her until they reach San Francisco. She is finally discovered by Montague Love, the hardboiled first mate.

See the hair raising climax!!!

This is a fine play and an excellent cast of characters.

"Sinners in the Sun"

This story of young lovers and the near fatal mistake they made is the basis of the play "Sinners in the Sun," which comes to the State theatre Thursday and Friday.

Carole Lombard, the beautiful daughter of humble parents, decides that riches are the greatest prize offered by the world. She ignores the true love of her childhood sweetheart, Chester Morris, and becomes the "kept woman" of a wealthy married man. Morris, thinking she has given him up for good, marries Adrienne Ames, millionairess. Having achieved riches by sacrificing their love, they find on a chance meeting that they are still madly in love with each other.

Following this episode, a complete change in their lives takes place, bringing joy and happiness and a new understanding.

CONGRESSMAN LEA DISCUSSES SOLDIER BONUS

In 1924 Congress authorized the issuance to each veteran of the World War a "bonus" or adjusted service certificate. Each veteran was credited with one dollar per day for domestic service and one dollar and twenty-five cents per day for foreign service as an additional compensation for his services in that war. He was also given an additional credit of 25% of the above amount to compensate him for the delay in the settlement.

Certificates were dated January 1, 1925, and were payable January 1, 1945, twenty years after date, or on the death of the holder before that time.

The total credit of the average veteran was $500, but the face value of his certifiate is $1,000. Half represents the debt due the veteran and the other half is for compound interest thereon for 20 years.

The total original credit to veterans on all certificates issued prior to this year amounted to about $1,750,000,000, and the face value to $3,500,000,000.

Now a demand is made for the immediate cash payment of the face value of these certificates which includes not only the total service credit but also compound interest thereon for 20 years. This demand is made 12 years before the maturity of these certificates. No other creditors have ever made a similar demand against our government or against any other debtor. The total amount of accrued interest is now $1,350,000,000. That is the amount demanded in excess of what the government owes. If paid it would be a charge exceeding $10 per head for every man, woman and child in the United States.

It would more than equal a dollar for every minute since Christ was born.

It would take 400 trucks carrying over three tons each to transport the gold to pay this demand.

"FAVE VALUE"

We must distinguish between the present value of a certificate and its face value. The present value is the total original credit given the veteran plus interest thereon from January 1, 1925, to the present time. The face value is the combined value of the total original credit plus compound interest for 20 years.

The government justly owes the present value of these certificates and that is all it does owe.

The government could sell its bonds and secure the money to pay the present cash value of these certificates without financial loss. The government would then pay interest to the bondholders instead of the veterans. That would not increase the burden of the government because both the principal and interest charge would be no greater than at present. The veteran could turn his certificate into cash if he chose to do so. I went before the Ways and Means Committee and urged that each veteran be given that privilege.

I opposed the immediate cash payment of the face value of the certificates. This is no time to expect transfer to the burdened shoulders of the people of the United States an obligation so vastly in excess of what the government has assumed.

We must justify expenditures from the standpoint of those who pay the bill as well as from the standpoint of those who receive the money. It is much harder to be on the cash paying end than on the cash receiving end.

I am never going to aid our government evade any just obligation to our veterans.

I am pleased to know that many veterans, notwithstanding their personal interest, recognize that the payment of the face value of the certificate at this time is unwarranted.

AS A RELIEF MEASURE

It was urged upon Congress that notwithstanding the bonus demand is greatly in excess of amounts due the money should nevertheless be paid as a relief measure. The reason that could not be justly done is apparent. Where perhaps one veteran is in such financial distress as to justify relief, to four others, it is unwarranted. It would be an impossible policy to impose upon the people of the country the burden of providing financial relief for five men in order that one needy man might be relieved.

As a class the veterans are in no worse financial condition than the people of the country generally. Any practicable form of relief from the treasury must provide only for those who are in financial distress and whose condition justifies the burden on the public. When such relief is granted it must be applied equally to all in like condition whether veterans or not.

The country makes separate provision for disabled veterans and their dependents. It sends out 1,500,000 checks each month for their relief.

INFLATION

It was insisted that the currency should be inflated by the use of printing presses and thus provide money to pay the bonus without a burden on the taxpayers. One of several answers is sufficient. If the government can expend money without creating burdens, then that power should be used to pay off the nation's debts and to reduce taxes. That would give benefits in which all the people of the nation would share.

NOTICE!

It appears from a survey of existing conditions that the Citizens' Emergency Relief committee of Ukiah will be even more necessary this winter than ever before. Prices have not increased, wages are at a minimum and work is not plentiful during the harvest season months.

All signs point to the necessity of preparing for the winter.

Our committee will need food. During the canning season we appeal to the households to put up extra fruit for our distribution. Just a little extra by many families will do much during the winter.

We need clothing. Instead of waiting until our appeal goes out for clothing and then hastily gathering a few garments for us, we ask the households to give it thought now. Will you not set apart a spot for clothing for our committee and begin collecting for us now?

And we shall need money. We shall ask for it later. The need will be great and we ask our citizens to begin giving thought now to their contributions.

And above all, we shall need work, jobs for men and women, by the hour, the day or week or what have you. Begin thinking it over now since winter will be here before we realize it. Is there something to have done about the place to give a job to a man or woman this winter?

Everyone wishes the present situation did not exist. The wolf will be at many doors this winter. It is our job to see that he does not get inside.

TO THE VOTERS OF MENDOCINO COUNTY

The primary campaign for Superior Judge is drawing to a close. I have endeavored to present my candidacy in a manner befitting that high and dignified office, without indulging in personalities. An eleventh hour attack on me in the last issue of the "Republican Press" cannot induce me to depart from the manner in which I have up to this time conducted my campaign. With a firm conviction that the people understand the purpose of this attack, made just before election, while I am many miles away from home, and with little opportunity for reply, I feel that no defense by me is necessary. However, as failure on my part to make any statement in reply might be construed as admission of the truth of the attack, I offer the following comment on the publication.

First, as to the paving controversy in Ukiah, while I was Mayor of the city: The City Council consisted of five members, as follows: Mrs. Martha Toles, Mr. J. R. Thomas, Mr. Guy Redwine, Mr. George Miller, and myself. When we were elected, a paving program had been inaugurated by our predecessors, and the new City Council felt it to be harsh on the property owners, so the Council appointed a committee of fifteen representative citizens to propose a new plan that would relieve the property owners of a part of the burden. A. R. O'Brien, editor of the Republican Press, was a member of this committee. The Council adopted the plan suggested by this committee, and the work was completed accordingly. ALL FIVE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL VOTED TO ADOPT THE PLAN. I did nothing different from any other member of the Council, and whatever was done, was by the UNANIMOUS vote of Mrs. Toles, now Social Agent of this County, Mr. Redwine, Mr. Miller, Mr. Thomas, and myself. No complaint has been made against any of the others, but I am singled out for attack. Mr. Thomas was re-elected to the Council only last April, and his re-election would indicate that the people approved of what he did in the paving matter, and I voted exactly as he did on every matter connected with the paving of our streets. Why, then, am I singled out for attack by the "Republican Press." The answer is . . . . politics.

Then it is suggested that because the city tax rate is now $1.10 while it was $1.40 the last year that I was Mayor, there was something discreditable in the conduct of my administration. The article, however, does not state that before I became a member of the Council, the tax rate was higher than $1.40, and that while I was Mayor the work of the Council started the tax rate downward. I commend the present Council for its good work in continuing the downward movement in the city tax rate that was begun while I was Mayor.

The "Republican Press" also intimates that there is something discreditable in the endorsement of my candidacy by the "Redwood Journal." I welcome that endorsement, which I consider a decided aid to my candidacy.

It is true that I was attorney for Sam Ray in his suit to foreclose a mortgage that he held on the "Redwood Journal." That suit was ended by the decision of Judge Geary. I did not feel it advisable to take an appeal, and suggested to Mr. Ray that if he was dissatisfied with the decision of Judge Geary, he should secure the services of another attorney. He did so, and there the matter ended. If I chose to have printing done by the "Redwood Journal," just as I did have have some done by the "Dispatch-Democrat," the "Mendocino Beacon," the "Fort Bragg Advocate" and the "Covelo Record," I had a right to do so. I had to have publicity in my campaign, and so long as I paid my own money for the work that those newspapers did, that is no reason why I should be attacked by Editor O'Brien. He insisted on a price for his work that I could not afford to pay, and I therefore gave my work to the other newspapers. He charged me seventy-five cents for each inch of printed matter that he published for me, and at that rate, one notice in his paper was all that I could afford. That single notice and announcement cost me $36.25.

I came to this County when I was a lad of sixteen years of age, and have lived here ever since. Here I have made my home, raised my family, and done my best to merit commendation as an honored and respected citizen doing my part as such. I have practiced law at the local bar for thirty-four years, and am today the oldest in point of service of the attorneys in active practice. I feel that I have a right to aspire to be Judge of this County, and that this desire on my part does not warrant an attack on my professional integrity.

I respectfully submit my candidacy.

Novel Stunt Enjoyed by Grangers Friday

An unique idea in entertainment was carried out at the meeting of the Ukiah Grange last Friday night. It was planned by George David. He built a grist mill—a huge box like affair with numerous cogs, wheels and what-nots in it, with an opening at each end. Any person entering it had the privilege of selecting a vocation, and upon his exit was supposed to have taken on whatever attributes he desired during his passage through the machine.

J. S. Crawford wanted to be a singer and upon going through the machine was given an excellent voice and entertained the members with a delightful song. Royal Ryder wanted to be a tap dancer and was transformed into an unsually good one. The thin people, who wished to be fat, were made so, and vice-versa, by the machine. Supervisor E. M. Ford was turned out as a jokester and H. E. Dewey, a fluent reader. They also entertained the audience. Other people who went through the mill were Mrs. W. F. Lawrence, Mrs. F. M. Swim, Mrs. Burgess, Fay Hildreth, Doris Lawrence, William Sutherland, W. K. Davis, George Dean, K. N. Hengeveld, Mrs. Tolman, F. T. Bent and C. H. Duncan.

The most novel stunt and one which caused much merriment, was the entry of a large German police dog, who came out the opposite end in the form of hundreds of weinies, which were served with buns at the close of the evening.

The social will go down in Grange history as the best evening planned this year, it was stated. Those that assisted David with the program were W. F. Lawrence, F. J. Tolman, Wes Cox, Mrs. Busch, Mrs. Ida Romer and Florence Owens.

The next meeting will be held on September 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hendrickson, of Fort Bragg, spent Tuesday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley on north School street. The coast city people are the parents of Mrs. Bradley.

It passed through the windshield of her car, shattering the glass. A small baby sitting beside her luckily escaped injury.

"Wild Man" Creation of Shrewd Master Showman

The famous wild man claimed by showmen to have been captured in the jungles of Borneo was a fake. The notion of such a wild man probably originated in the fertile brain of some master showman like P. T. Barnum of white elephant fame. For many years nearly every circus and Wild West show in the United States pretended to have on exhibition the original "wild man of Borneo." Borneo was probably selected as the native haunt of the wild man because that island has long been the classic land of the headhunters. It seems, however, that the ferocity of the headhunters of Borneo has been greatly exaggerated, although the natives still occasionally take the heads of their enemies in time of war. But headhunting is no longer a favorite sport with the Dyaks, who resort to the practice only when times are dull and other amusements wanting.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Proved She Had Need for Second 'Kerchief

Thomas Jefferson had no social life at the White House for anyone to gossip about. He shut up the place, all except his bedrooms, his office and the kitchen, and let spiders run the rest of the house, writes David Rankin Barbee in the Washington Post. After him, however, came the precious reign of Dolly Madison, the little Quaker from North Carolina, whose father had been a tavern keeper. She was the social queen of the White House if ever it had one, and what delightful stories have come down to us about her.

She always carried two 'kerchiefs, one a delicate lace thing which she flirted with, and the other a large red silk bandanna on which she blew her nose. Dolly was a user of snuff and a dainty one, too; hence the bandanna. Once a Prince Charming asked her why she carried the red one: "For heavy work, sir," was the quick reply, suiting the action to the word.

Hurrah

The exclamation hurrah was in use in New England in 1686, and in England in 1694. In the form whurra, it was used by Addison ("Drummer," act 5, sc. 2) in 1716; and as "hurrea, hurrea, bravo!" by Goldsmith ("She Stoops to Conquer," act 1, sc. 2) in 1773. Beresford in "Lord Auckland's Correspondence," dated 1798 and reprinted 1862, vol. 3, p. 334, uses the form hurraying. Moriz Heyne, cited by Grimm, declares that hurrah was used as a war-cry by the Prussian soldiers in the War of Liberation (1813-1815). The term comes from the German hurra which has been traced to the Middle High German (Twelfth century) hurren, which means to hasten.—Literary Digest.

Splendid Exercise Board

Necessity may truly be called the mother of invention, for not long ago a patient recovering from paralysis needed exercise to co-ordinate the muscles of his hands and arms. An exercise board was devised. It consists of a plain board 30 inches long and 7 inches wide with a shelf 36 inches long. It is fastened to a bed or a table with iron clamps or wooden hand screws. Articles for exercise, such as screen door spring, bird's cage spring, sash lock, cupboard latch, barrel bolt, drawer pull, snap switch are attached. These may be obtained at any hardware store, an article in Hygeia Magazine explains.

Rigid Court Customs

No cabinet minister ever kisses the king's hand, when the new ministers are presented by the prime minister, they kneel before the king and take his hand into their own. They make an inclination of the head towards the royal hand, but do not actually attempt to kiss it, having been warned in advance by an usher not to do so. In the case of a lame minister he is excused from kneeling. The seals of office are kept in small cases and are handed personally by the king to the cabinet ministers when they take office, and are returned into the king's own hands when a minister resigns.—London Mail.

Man With a Horn

A Grecian workman, named Saranopoulos, visited the Athens municipal hospital there and asked if an operation could be performed to remove a horn which was growing out of his forehead. The doctors scarcely believing their ears examined the man, and discovered that he had in fact a horn resembling that of a goat, three inches in length, projecting from the middle of his forehead. The victim explained that several times he had cut it off, but it always grew again. An operation was performed, and the horn is now preserved among the curios of the hospital.

Insects in Winter

To our unseeing eyes, the hosts of insects abroad during the summer months seem wholly to disappear when winter comes. If we look about us to see where it is possible for insects to find shelter during the winter we would find at least, the following locations are available: in the ground, or under shelter on its surface; in ponds, streams and other bodies of water; in stumps, logs and dead wood, and plants of all sorts; in, or on living trees, shrubs, and smaller plants; in galls, in fruits, and in occasional shelter provided by man for his own service.

Lions Club Enjoys Barbecue, Songfest

The Ukiah Lions club held a venison barbecue at the Hanby Ford ranch, north of town, Thursday night of last week. The party was attended by about 35.

The venison was barbecued to a turn by Chef Paul Anderson.

The evening was spent in group singing with accompaniments played by several of the musician members on their instruments. Clay Cherry was the principal entertainer of the evening, contributing several selections on his slide trombone.

Dr. Newell Rea, Carl Ellidge, Preston Cherry and Dr. Kirwin were the committee.

Lew Kirk, of Redwood valley, is spending a few days in San Francisco, where he is visiting friends and transacting business.

Woodchopper Jailed for Alleged Threats

Joe Luther, 57, a woodchopper of the Fort Bragg section, was brought to the county jail Thursday evening by Sheriff Dick Williams and Deputy Earl Bishop, following his arrest Wednesday afternoon on a ranch a short distance north of Pudding creek.

He is charged with threatening to kill some of his neighbors and his employer. He carried two guns with him, a derringer and a 38 caliber revolver. He had no permit.

He had lived in that section for 14 years.

He was taken before Justice of the Peace Bill Ware, of Fort Bragg, who set his bail at $1,000.

Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Kemfrey, and E. H. McMillan, of Point Arena, were guests at the Ukiah Auto Court this week.

THEN AND NOW—WHY?

Twelve years ago, Mr. W. D. L. Held was a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, and was defeated. In commenting on the campaign, the "Republican Press" after the election, made the following editorial comment:

Mendocino County has written into political history the most remarkable chapter ever to appear in the annals of California politics. Never was there a campaign just like the recent campaign for Superior Judge, and it is doubtful if ever there will be another.

Looking upon the battlefield with the eyes of an unprejudiced observer, we find a lone candidate, without organization, campaign manager or advisor, waging a lone battle against the mightiest political machine ever banded together in the county. Yet the semi-official election returns show that less than two hundred votes, out of an approximate 7,000, separate the two. The manner in which this was brought about forms one of the most remarkable and unique chapters in modern politics.

Regardless of the final outcome, the campaign was a victory for the people. Their eyes have been opened to a condition in county politics which requires a remedy that only the voters and taxpayers can apply. Mr. W. D. L. Held, who fought a lone fight, was condemned because he dared to expose a condition with which many of us are familiar but are, and always have been, afraid to speak. He carried this message openly, by printed articles to which his name was signed, to the voters of Mendocino county. Some of them believed him, while others hesitated to accept it as truth—it was so new to them, so strange and almost so unbelievable.

The frank and open manner in which Mr. Held conducted his campaign has won many friends for him and for his cause. He took entire responsiblity for every utterance and accusation made in his campaign. He has forced an opening wedge into a condition that must be done away with and he has started a "house cleaning" that will be carried to completion.

ROUND VALLEY

COVELO, Aug. 22.—F. E. Woolley, vice-chairman of the Covelo chamber of commerce, received word during the week from V. M. Moir of the state chamber of commerce, setting the date of Saturday, September 3, for the official dedication of the Covelo airport. Some forty or fifty planes are expected from various sources. Army and navy planes will be a feature of the occasion. Members of the county board of supervisors have promised to be present to participate in the ceremonies. A meeting of the local chamber of commerce has been called for Monday evening to complete arrangements for the occasion. A picnic dinner, an Indian feather dance and a grass game have been suggested as typical features that might interest the visitors. Volunteer helpers have made new lime markers for the port. Under the direction of Mr. Woolley every effort is being made to give the visitors a royal welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar and Fred Mae, publicity and staff photographer of the Redwood Empire Association, came into Covelo Thursday for the purpose of preparing a motorlogue of the Round valley highway. They were met at Laytonville by a committee consisting of F. E. Woolley and G. M. Biggar, who accompanied them to Covelo. They took about seventy-five views between Laytonville and Mendocino Pass. The motorlogue is scheduled to appear in the Sunday edition of the San Francisco Examiner on August 28. The outside world is beginning to show an interest in the newly formed Joint Highway District No. 20.

Round valley is expressing her gratitude to the board of supervisors for their recognition of our urgent needs in granting the emergency fund for the bridge and the initial $10,000 which is necessary to bind the federal and state contract to complete the million and a half lateral between the Pacific and Redwood highways. The lateral is destined to become one of the most important in the northern part of the state.

A most interesting discussion with graphic charts to illustrate was presented on Friday evening at the auditorium by Judge M. H. Iversen. The charts and the talk were designed to make clear to the lay mind just what is being done with the funds being poured by each and all of us into the county treasury. These studies are a move in the right direction. Improvement clubs and night school classes could confer much benefit on the community by continuing them during the winter.

An item which will interest Covelo readers appeared as headliner in the sports column of the Humboldt Standard for August 16. "Emil Hemenway, property of the Oakland baseball team of the Pacific coast league, will be seen playing left field for the Samoa Sawmillers Sunday. . . Hemenway, who has been pitching ball for the Oakland club for the past month, returned home Saturday and will remain here until next spring, when he will report again to the Oaks." The player is a nephew of C. L. Hemenway. His parents, Fred Hemenway and Sylvia Hemenway, were popular young people in Covelo twenty-five years ago.

Art Conner, packer for the geological survey, came in for baled hay and grub Thursday from Hayfork valley. This reminds us that Covelo is the last trading post for many miles north.

Brown Brothers from Bald Mountain and the J. F. ranch are in the valley finishing cattle. Frank went to San Franicsco with a fine carload of stock last week.

An interesting exhibit of Indian art is on display at Hotel Covelo awaiting transportation to the Ukiah high school, where it is to become a part of the museum collection. The articles were prepared by Frank Logan, well-known Yuki and one of our best citizens. They consist of flute, dance whistle, clapper for beating time, and feather head dress.

Hoppicking is scheduled to begin Thursday, August 25. The current price of 75 cents a hundred will be paid.

Raymond McCabe of Garnet, Kansas, and E. C. Larsen of Los Angeles left Friday for their respective homes, after a visit to the R. M. Anderson ranch. Mr. McCabe is a lifelong friend of Mrs. Anderson. He drove her home in her new 1932 Chevrolet six coupe from Kansas and spent a few days visiting the family and seeting California, both of which charmed him. Mr. Larsen is a former partner of Mr. Anderson and at one time was a resident of Round valley.

Miss Lena Yates is spending a short time at the home of her parents before the opening of her school on September 19. She and her sister, Ruth, returned recently from an extensive vacation tour which included trips to Westwood, Tahoe, Donner Lake, Watsonville and Susanville. At the latter point they were much interested in the monument to the memory of Peter Lassen, one of our sturdiest pioneers, who was influential in establishing the organization of Free Masonry in the state.

Miss Ruth Housley, of Oakland, is a house guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Duncan of Dos Dios. They enjoyed a trip to Covelo Thursday.

It is with regret that we announce the loss to our community of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Clark of the bakery. They have made many friends during their residence here, and have proved themselves the type of citizens who contribute to the upbuilding of the best in community life. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Cloverdale, the new proprietors, are old friends returning to us, and will receive a hearty welcome.

Mrs. Henrietta Fairbanks was called to Covelo during the week by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Sadie Conner, whose condition is causing alarm to her family and friends.

Remember This:

Hugh L. Preston, Jr., whose name appears on the primary ballot for justice of the Appellate Court, is, as we all know him, H. L. Preston, of Ukiah, and county pride should cause everyone here to vote for Judge Preston. San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys will, probably, return a heavy vote against Judge Preston, because Judge Pullen, his opponent, is very well known there. To win Judge Preston should get a majority of at least 7000 in Mendocino county.

JOHN L. McNAB UNQUALIFIEDLY ENDORSES HUGH L. PRESTON, JR.

An endorsement of unusually high order is the following recently received by Judge H. L. Preston from Hon. John L. McNab:

Ukiah, Calif.
August 12, 1932.

Hon. Hugh L. Preston, Jr.,
Presiding Justice
District Court of Appeal
Sacramento, California.

My dear Justice Preston:

I have been watching with keen personal interest the progress of your campaign for reelection to the high office you now hold. Your long and brilliant service as Superior Judge of the County in which I was born and in which my heaviest interests are still centered was the reason for your deserved promotion to the Appellate bench.

The bar of California was unanimous in its praise for the remarkable record you established in deciding cases and writing illuminating opinions on the Appellate bench while at the same time performing to the complete satisfaction of the people the exacting duties of a Superior Judge.

So uniformly were you affirmed in your decisions that people everywhere began to accept them as final and correct.

Since your elevation to the position of Presiding Justice of the Court of Appeals you have set an example which it will be difficult for anyone to follow in industry and diligence. The great number of opinions you have rendered, in addition to performing the arduous duties of a Presiding Justice, causes one to wonder at your endurance and untiring vigor.

I am proud that the County of my birth has given to this state so devoted a public servant as yourself, and I shall do all within my power to aid you in continuing your splendid service to the people of the state.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) John L. McNab

The column of heights gives the elevation of each tide above or below the level of the Coast Survey chart soundings. The numbers are always additive to the chart depth.

The data is practically the same for Point Arena Light, Navarro River Entrance, Little River Harbor, Mendocino Bay and Fort Bragg Landing. For Westport subtract 5 minutes from the time and for Shelter Cove add 0.8 ft. to high tide.

The board took up the matter of the road budgets and suggestions were made for the reduction of the funds for road districts and applying same on the construction of the Dos Rios bridge.

A motion was made and seconded to adopt a resolution whereby certain designated amounts were to be apportioned to each of the five road districts, and from each of said five amounts, apportioned to the road districts, the sum of ten thousand dollars should be deducted, except in district five where the sum of four thousand dollars would be deducted; said amounts so deducted to be used for the construction, as an emergency measure, of the Dos Rios bridge in District No. 3. By a 3 to 2 vote, said resolution was defeated.

Dull Children Changed to Bright Scholars Almost Over Night

Your child may be having difficulties in school or be backward in studies just because of some defect of vision which might be overcome by proper correction.

Only a thorough examination such as is given in my office can show the true conditions. Of 776 young cases I found 48% with defective vision that were not aware of the conditions. I give special attention to school children.
